LETTERS FROM THE CANDIDATES. We have received the following letters from different

NEW YORK, Nov. 29, 1868. The taxpayers' nomination for Alderman of the Seventeenth district-Daniel Devlin-is the gentleman of that name who keeps the hotel at McComb's Dam, who has been for many years a resident and a taxpayer of the Twelfth ward.

A TAXPAYER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29, 1858. In your edition of yesterday the occupation of Mr.

James Mahony, the democratic republican candidate for Alderman of the Fifteenth district, is put down as boarding. Mr. Mahony has been well known in this city for the past twenty years as one of our most energetic and accomplished mechanics, and is now one of our most staunch and extensive employers as a builder and stone-cutter.

A CONSTANT READER. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

This passage recurs to my mind when seeing all the tes starting for the Aldermanic representation of Twentieth ward has been hitherto misrepresented, and that some gentlemen, in whom the people placed confidence, were politically maltreated. An honorable gentleman is now a candidate for the Twentieth ward. He has been nominated by the people, and not by Tammany Halls antecedents are of the well known democratic creed—of the people's choice. This gentleman is Mr. James Councilly, and it is a useless matter for any of the political rascals to contend with him in his fight for the honest

W. J. KELLY, Corner of Thirty-third street and Eighth avenue. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

On seeing an article in your valueable paper this morning stateing you entended to publish in your Sundays herald the names and occupations as was a candidate for offices now before the pepole of the city of new york in order to know who is taxpayer and who is not for witch I am satisfyed you to do very respectfully your most Obedient Servant JOHN EDWARDS,

363 BROOME STREET, NEW YORK, Nov. 29, 1858. Should you republish the list of candidates for school

In your Sunday issue I see my name in the list as " in dependent candidate" for School Trustee of the Thirteenth ward. I am no candidate for that or any other position at the coming election in December. By inserting the above in your valuable paper, you will confer a favor.

18AAC M. AVERELL, 429 Grand street.

NOVEMBER 29, 1868.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29, 1858. "City Politics," and in a list of nominated school officers for the Sixth ward, my name, with my business as a lodging house keeper, which is wrong—a business as a lodging house keeper, which is wrong—a business which I do not follow nor ever did follow. If the Directory was consulted it would show that I am a produce dealer in Washington Market, and my residence 65 Mulberry street. By correcting the error, you will oblige WILLIAM CARROLL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. Observing in Sunday's impression of your paper my

New York, Nov. 29, 1858.
Your attention is called to the bandbill herewith sent.—

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. Naw York, Nov. 29, 1858. In yesterday's issue of your paper, I perceive, in giving

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. have not been informed of this nomination. I do not desire it, having given a large portion of my time for ten years as a School Trustee of the Seventeenth ward. I shall not consent to my name being used in a way to divide the vote on the School ticket.

The Charman, in putting the first toast, returned thanks for the honor of his re-election, and referred to the past presperous history of the society, whose primary object was purely charitable. The Treasurer's and Secretary's reports had furnished the details of the society but he might say that 900 persons had been relieved from the funds of the society during the past year. The chaplain and surgeon of the society had obtained employment for many in the city, and had sent many others to different parts of the country at the expense of the society. The speaker announced that the society was peruniarly in a flourishing condition. He was glad to see so many new members present. It showed that the society was flourishing. (Applause.) He would give the first toast.

The Passenext, in giving the fourth toast, "The Queen," introduced it as "the toast of the evening." It was' received with unusual enthusiasm, the band playing "God save the Queen," and the company growing somewhat wild with loyalty. The toast of "The President of the United States" followed.

Mr. Anomann, the British Consul, responded to the next toast.—"The representatives of the British government in this country." He said:—

Mr. President and Gentlemen—On behalf of all who are embraced in the toast which has just been proposed, and so cordially received, I thank you for the honor done them; as honor which will be the more prized as coming from so respectable and influential a body as the St. Andrew's Society of the State of New York; an honor which I am sure will be peculiarly gratifying to the distinguished nobleman, her Majesty's able and worthy chief representative in this country, who, I regret to find, is prevented by pressing engagements from being present at your festive board, and since the precent finish; the notion of the bistory of the British engire, have been happily accomplished through the wisdom, foresight and firmness of her Majesty's g long, be traversed by many telegraphic cables, and the time will come when by means of these agencies, in the words of your great poet—

Man to man the warld o'er.
Shall brothers be for a' that.

And at some future celebration of your anniversary festival you will be enabled to interchange congratulations, not only with your sister societies of Edinburg and Glaagow, but, looking to the peculiar progressiveness of Scotchmen, with the St. Andrew's Societies of Jeddo and too fattering manner in which you have associated my name with this toast. I exteem it both an honor and a pieasure to be once more your guest on the festal day of your patron saint. I have hetened with great satisfaction to the recital this evening of the beneficent deeds of your society, and trust that with increased demands upon your charity you may be blessed with abundantly increased means of dispensing them.

In conclusion, the speaker proposed the health of Mr. Norrie, President of the St. Andrew's Society. The toast was received with loud applause. Mr. Norrie briefly responded.

Mayor Timaars responded to the seventh teast—the city of New York and our beneated means of the second one of the seventh cast—the city of New York and our beneated intent that Mayor—in city.

was received with loud applause. Mr. Norrie briefly responded.

Mayor Tiemann responded to the seventh toast—the city of New York and our bonored guest the Mayor—in eloquent terms, and was received with great applause. He was glad to be able to say to Scotchmen, Englishmen, Irishmen and Germans, as an American, that he welcomed them as fellow citizens. He was proud to hear that company to night drink the health of the Queen, for every one respects her as a woman and a sovereign. Mr. Archibald, the representative of the Queen, said that they had celebrated the laying of the cable. So they had. They had burned the City Hall and Quarantine; but he did not want to see such another celebration. (Laughter.) His Honor continued to relate several anecodes—among others, one of a Scotchman, Robert Pettigrew, who, when his (the Mayor's) property was destroyed by fire in 1840, generously offered him a sum sufficient to repay his loss. (Cheers.) That circumstance made Scotchmen very dear to him. In conclusion, the Mayor offered the toast of——which was drank with much feeling.

The memory of Robert Pettigrew.

The memory of Robert Petilgrew.

Dr. Brazzs, of the St. George's Society, responded to the toast of "Our Sister Societies," and in the course of his remarks aliuded to the Baimoral peticout, which, he said, surrounds and covers all that men love and admire in the world. In concusion be gave—

Scotland—In war, art, science and literature she may proudly challenge the world. Mr. Pank sang "Scotland, I love thee," in excellent style, which was loudly applauded. Mr. Stoars, of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, fol-lowed in a few happy remarks, and gave— St. Andrew's Society of New York-Its founders have in their sons those who imitate their virtues.

Mr. VEULANCE, in behalf of the St. Nicholas Society, then spoke, alluding to the contributions of Scotchmen to the literature of America, and concluded by giving the toast of—Scotchmen—Wherever they go, they love the land of their origin; wherever they go, the land of their residence honors and respects them. The other toasts were duly responded to, and the meet-ing broke up at a late hour.

A MILITARY ESCORT. General Paez has so far recovered from the injuries he leave the city for Venezuela to-morrow, when he will sail in the Caledonia, the government vessel which has been placed at his disposal to convey him to his native land. All the unfavorable symptoms have disappeared, and his health will soon be restored. His friends even now think it imprudent for him to leave; but the commander of the Caledonia is urgent that he should sail at once, and the old General warmly seconds his wishes. Unless, therefore, something unusual transpires, General Paez will leave to morrow. The following order has been issued:—

OENERAL ORDERS, NO. 14.

BEADQUARTERS FIRST DIVISION, N. Y. S. M. }

NEW YORK, NOV. 30, 1858.

The Major General has the pleasure to announce to the Division that General Paez has so far recovered from the injuries sustained by him on the 25th instant, as to be able to embark for Venezuela on Thursday next, the 24 of December.

to embark for Venezuela on Thursday next, the 2d of December.

The detachment of cavalry and artillery detailed for his escort by General Orders, No. 12, will therefore parade on that day, under the command of Brigadler General Spicer, to escort this veteran soldier and the Venzuelan Commissioners from the Astor Flace Hotel to the point of embarkation upon the North river.

The line will be formed in Lafayette place, with the right on Astor place, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The general, field and staff officers of the Division not on duty are requested to meet the Major General, in full uniform and mounted, at half-past eleven o'clock on the same day, in Washington place, near Broadway, to join the procession.

By order of Major General Sandford.

C. H. SANDFORD, D. Q. M., Act. Div. Insp.

SAN JUAN DEL NORTE, NOV. 16, 1858. from Napoleon and Belly—The White Transit Route and Prospects—The Washington's Passengers—Walker Look-ed for at Aspinwall—General Case' Letter and its Effect—

Valorous steamed into our little harbor, and came to an-chor near the United States ship Jamestown. There were already lying at a little distance from each other the United States ships Savannah and Jamestown, and her Britanic Majesty's steam frigates Leopard and Basa-lisk, precenting quite a sociable group, with their banners Seating to a fine breeze, and the beautiful bright sunshine glistening upon the stars and stripes and the cross of St. George. Suddenly up run the various flags in the town, for the Valerous had been discovered outside the harbor and recognized, and as she came to anchor inside the buy and recognized, and as she came to anchor inside the bay the roar of cannon welcomed her to the party of her "companious in arms." The ministerial salute was given and responded to, and a round of visiting from the various thips is going on as I write. Well, let us hope that this "vexed question" of the Mosquito protectorate will soon be brought to an end, and that the worn out difficulties of the semi-barbarians of the interior will fol-low close on its heels.

that this "vexed question" of the Mosquito protectorate will soon be brought to an end, and that the worn out difficulties of the semi-barbarians of the interior will follow close on its heels.

The thick skull of President Martinez cannot be penetrated, it seems, by the force of common sense, for he still clings to the belief that Mous. Belly will induce Louis Napoleon to take up his case, and bring to his aid his ally, the Queen of Great Britain, to nip in the bud "Yankee enterprise," under the pleathat Walker is the government of the United States, or that—which is about the same thing—the United States endorsed the course Walker pursued in his short rule in this poor benighted country.

The transit of the Joe While Company is repudiated in toto; and should the passengers arrive here to-morrow, as we are led to believe they may, from the advertisements of Mr. Yelverton in the New York papers, which stated that the steamship Washington would positively leave for this pert on the 6th instant, they must inevitably have "a bard time of it," to say the least.

Speaking of Walker, a verdant youth has written a letter in his own peculiarly truthful style from Asplawall to a sympathising friend of this town, stating that Walker passed through Aspinwall, went to Panama and actually safed, bound to San Joan del Sur, Realigo and Brita flay, at all of which ports he insends to land. Stop and take breath and cross yourselves ye Nicaraguscenses.

Now, the effect of all this is just what might be expected, and would do well enough for our friend the Viscount de Barrael; but it is not in this light that homest men will regard it. Our government—a pattern for the world to foliow, and as announced by the able letter of General Cass to General Lama—walkes in its forbearance to convince these deduded people who cling to the skirts of such men as Belly and De Barrael, that its mission is "peace on earth and gove will to man," and that while it plices the infirmines under which Nicaragus constitutionally suffers, and would rejoic

DEATH OF Mr. SELAN HILL.—Mr. Selah Hill, who was fatally injured at the new bonded building in Montgomery eleven o'clock on Monday night. Mr. Hill was a gentle eleven o'clock on Monday night. Mr. Hill was a gentle-man of high standing in the county, and within a few years past has served as a member of the Common Coun-cil, Board of Water Commissioners in Jersey City, and also in the Board of Choson Freeholders. At the time of his death Mr. Hill was one of the directors of the Mo-chanics' and Traders' Bank of Jersey City. The funeral will take place this (Wednesday) afternoon, at half past one o'clock, from his late residence in Lanyotte village, and will be attended by the Common Council, Board of Water Commissioners and municipal officers of Jersey City. WRECK OF THE EMITISH BARK JEANIE JOHNSTON—GREAT SUPPERINGS OF THE CREW AND THE CAPTAIN'S WIFE AND CHILD—SCENES ON BOARD BSFORE THE VESSEL WAS ABANDONED.

The British bark Jeanie Johnston, which ieft Quebec on the 5th of October, for Hull, with a cargo of deals, bedays, being obliged to remain aloft in the rigging they were without water, proper food, sleep, or room to move about, and exposed to the inclemency of the weather, which was intensely cold and boisterous. were subsequently rescued by the Dutch bark Sophie Elizabeth, Captain Vanderheof, and confor nine days and nights in the rigging of the wreck, in the most deplorable condition of wretchedness. Jeanie Johnston, and an account of the sufferings of those on board of her, by her commander, Capt. Johnston :-

THE CAPTAIN'S NARRATIVE. We sailed from Quebec at daylight on the morning of the 5th of October, with a cargo of deals, for Hull, England. Our crew consisted of eleven men, my mate and old, making altogether fifteen of us. We went on with moderate breezes, until the evening of the 21st, at eleven o'clock, when it came on to blow from the N. N. E. rather freshly, and we shortened sail and kept on our course as before. About 11/2 o'clock A. M. of the 22d, it became squally, the wind blowing strongly from the same point. We were then in latitude 47 45, longitude 41 25 west. The gale increased, and we were obliged to stow that the ship was making water very fast, so all hands were immediately set to work at the pumps. At six A, & we shipped a heavy sea, which washed in, washed away the coppers for cooking, quenched the fires, and swept many small articles overboard. The gaie continued unabated until 1-30 P. M of the same day, when we were bearded by another heavy san, which store in the top of the cabin.
